Foreclosure Prevention Assistance Program Available Statewide

Minnesota has an extensive statewide network of foreclosure prevention counseling agencies that provide services to all homeowners in danger of losing their homes due to foreclosure.

These free services are available to all Minnesotans through the network of local non-profit organizations and government agencies, not just consumers with Minnesota Housing loan products. Counselors will help consumers determine available options, including legal assistance, loan modifications, and interest-free loans through Minnesota Housing.

The Minnesota Home Ownership Center website has an interactive map of local counseling agencies. Spanish speaking homeowners can contact Neighborhood Development Alliance (NeDA) in the metro area at 651.292.0131 for assistance.

HOME HELP Manual Revisions

A revised version of the HOME HELP manual has been posted to the Minnesota Housing website.
